

Scouting in Chinquapin

Scouting for Food. Distribution is February 7 with pickup the following week, February 14. Perry has expressed an interest to mentor his replacement, so if you are interested in championing this most worthwhile service project, please contact the Chinquapin Program Chair –Laurie Stokes bsaunit111@yahoo.com

Roundtable: 7pm February 12 at Oakwood Baptist Church, 3520 Mineral Springs Road, Lexington
Cub Scouts: Program Change: Wolves
Boy Scouts: Webelos to Scout Transition

Wood Badge, March 13-15 & April 17-19, is the embodiment of Scouting spirit, ideas, and service. Like many intense training experiences, it relies on a busy schedule forcing the participants to work together, to organize, and to develop a team spirit to accomplish the tasks and challenges placed before them while renewing their dedication, spirit of brotherhood, and fellowship in the Scouting.
